

B Series books 5-10

History

Books 1–10 of the B Series were written in 1999/2000 to ensure that children learnt the basic correspondences of the sight and sound of each single letter of the alphabet.

Books 1 and 10 were revised in July 2009. The revision in book 1 was the removal of the word 'can', meaning 'a drinks can' because fizzy drinks were being discouraged for young children. The revision in book 10 was the removal of the word 'very.' The word 'very' was reinstated in the 2014 reprint to reinforce the use of the letters 'v' and 'y'.

The word 'quack' was removed in the 2012 reprint from book 8. This means that the letter 'q' is no longer introduced in this set of books.

B Series book 5-10 Introduction

The letters 'j, k, v, w, y, z' are introduced in books 5-10. Sentences are also introduced including capital letters and full stops (other than on pages 5, 7, 8 in book 5B where full stops are used for consistency). The capital letters 'I, J, T, S, B, P, O, A, K' are used and the verbs 'am, see, look, is, has, put, hops, run, fell, pull, hugs, ran, taps, jumps'.

Aims of the B Series books 5-10

- To reinforce the introduction of the letters of the alphabet used in the A Series books 5-10 in simple meaningful words. The letter 'z' is also introduced in books 8 and 10.
- To use the verbs 'am', 'see' and 'look' in meaningful sentences consistently to reinforce the A Series.
- To ensure the books are written in natural spoken language and that the vocabulary makes sense to young children.
- To use as many CVC words as possible so that children can practise reading this type of word.

This book reinforces the phrase 'I am ...' introduced in book 5A. It also reinforces the letter 'u' in the word 'hut'.

Not all the text in book 5B is in the form of sentences e.g. 'The rat and the hen in the hut' does not contain a verb and, hence, it is not a sentence. Capital letters and full stops have been inserted in this reprint. The letter 'y' is used in this book in the name 'Jelly'. Please see the notes for the A series 5-10 for the Shy 'i', Toughy 'y' Rule
