

Information for Teachers

This book has four separate stories for children learning to read complete sentences.

The vocabulary consists of simple words that are well known to children.

The new letters introduced are w, ck, j, k, y.

Words with consonants to blend at their beginning or end are included in the vocabulary.

The text is made up of complete sentences. Capital letters and punctuation are used.

The common words is, has are used.

The 'tricky' words used are the, I, to.
